At the election yesterday in the Burroughs of Southwork for the members of Parliament, the polls were closed at 8 o'clock p. m. when it was announced that the resul would be declared to-day. Ed Clark the conservative candidate was elected.

A SENATE SCANDAL.

A Southern Senator Ruins A Female Clerk--A Divorce Suit Said to be in Store.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 12.—The scandal which was spoken of a few days ago in which a Southern Senator and a clerk in the treasury department were the principl characters, is creating a great deal of talk here, and much money is being spent in an endeavor to hush the matter up. There is a prospect of a divorce suit soon, in which the facts will have to come out. The story, which is told on very good authority, is that there is a woman now holding a position in the treasury department, who was placed there through the influence of a Southern Senator with the understanding that she was to keep a house on Eleventh street, to which she would invite some of the young female clerks of the office, and they would there meet the Senator and his friends. On certain evenings she would have a party at her house, and the young ladies would be treated to wine suppers and the pleasnre of meeting congressmen and other great men. A short time ago one of these young ladies, who is also employed in the treasury as a clerk, was found to be enciente, and the woman of the house, together with the Senator, were instrumental in having an abortion performed. Since then the girl has been very much distressed over the fact, and through her confessions to some of her friends the stoey has leaked out.

Novel Appliance of a Shirt.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 14.—Boniface Nunez, confined in the county jail here under conviction of the murder of William Fry, last April, hung himself in his cell some time last night, using for that purpose a rope made from pieces of his shirt.

Conkling Sticks to Grant.

Senator Conkling, in answer to a question whether the Sherman-Moulton letter in any way represents his sentiments, said: "I do not know Mr. Moulton, and have had no conversation with either him or Mr. Sherman. There is no one in New York authorized to speak for me. A great deal of canarding is being done just now in order to injure General Grant, but I do not think it will succeed. If they can make people believe that I am not for General Grant, and for any one else, they may succeed in making it appear that nobody is for him."

The Truth of It.

Baltimore American.

It does not require the anonymous declarations of "personal friends" to General Grant to convince the public that he is a presidential candidate, when Senator Cameron runs the risk of political destruction to secure the Pennsylvania delegation for him, and Senator Conkling does not hesitate to publicly announce his intention of adopting the same course in New York. General Grant is a candidate now beyond any question; but it is not by any means that he will be a candidate at Chicago. He will not go into that convention unless he is sure of winning, nor will he be nominated unless the party is sure of electing him. He has entered upon the most hazardous campaign of his life, and he is too good a general to cut off his means of retreat by any premature announcement of his intentions.

Dublin Mansion House---Irish Relief Fund.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—Subscriptions to the Dublin Mansion House for the Irish relief fund up to date aggregates 57,584 pounds, and grants the aggregate to 2700 pounds. The Times in an article on last nigts debate in the House of Commons concluded as follows:

The objection of the Irish members that a charge upon the Church fund would really be in aid of poor rates and would thus violate the express provision of the act of 1869 is inconsistent with the claim made upon the Imperial Exchequer. The measures of the government are intended only to take effect when the poor law system proves wholly inadequate whether it is the cost of Church fund or of State.

Dreamy and Scattering.

Cleveland Herald.

There is still scattering talk about North Carolina, or Florida, or Virginia, or some other Southern States being carried by the Republicans next fall. Vain delusion.

CONGRESSIONAL CHAT.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE 46TH CONGRESS.

Debates in the House, and a Full Report of Both Houses as Telegraphed the News.

HOUSE.

The House met this morning for debate only, and was addressed by Mr. Bright, of Tennessee, on the subject of refunding the public debt.

He attacked the money oligarchy which had for so long a time dictated legislation, and to the rapacity of which there appeared to be no bound or bottom; that the money power had secured the passage of the acts of 1869, 1871 and 1875, the latter being one of the many assaults upon the treasury notes. He argued that the legal tender act was perfectly constitutional, and quoted authorities in support of his argument.

Mr. Finley, of Ohio, followed with a speech in favor of the bill for the equalization of bounties.

Mr. Hoges, of Illinois, discussed the many phases of the financial question, stating however, that he hoped that for one session at least Congress would cease all all attempts to change or disturb it. The people wanted no more Congressional tinkering with the currency.

Mr. Ballou, of Indiana, spoke in favor of a repeal of the legal tender act, and in defence of the National bank system.

Mr. Joyce, of Vermont, spoke in opposition to the reciprocity treaty between Canada and the United States.

Mr. Myers, of Indiana, spoke in favor of the bill introduced some time ago by himself for the retirement of National bank notes, and at 4 o'clock the House adjourned.

House Election Sub-Committee

WASHINGTON, D C., February 14.—The Sub-committee of the House election Committee met to-day and decided to make no written report in the Donnelly-Washburne case, but each member should verbally state his views at the meeting of the full committee on Tuesday next at which time a vote be taken. It is stated on authority that there will be a majority and minority report submitted to the House.

It is believed that the majority will report in favor of Donnelly in the case of the Louisville Lottery Company against the Postmaster at that city for withholding letters addressed to the Commonwealth Distribution Company per order of Post Master General. This is the same case which was recently argued in that city but owing to the illness of Judge Hayes no decision was rendered. The reargument of the case will be heard before Judge Baxter. Judge Freeman and assistant Attorney General for the Postoffice Department, left here to-night for Louisville, Ky., to represent the Postoffice Department.

There were indications that the Democratic members were delaying action on Simmons' nomination with a view to inducing Felton, Hill and Stephens to procure its withdrawal.

Favorable reports were authorized to be made to the Senate upon several of the New York nominations, and also upon two of the Connecticut appointments.

In the Senate the Census Committee held a session of four hours' duration to-day, which was devoted mainly to the examination of voluminous papers relating to the nomination of a number of Census Supervisors for the Southern and Southwestern States.

The Georgia contested case of Rev. T. J. Simmons was not brought before the Committee to-day.

Judge Reade Declines to Be a Candidate for Governor.

In a letter written by Judge Reade in this city, dated Feb. 5th, to Mr. D. H. Starbuck, of Winston, the Judge positively refuses to allow his name to be used in connection with the Republican Gubernatorial Nomination. He says there is no office in the world he wants, but here is his letter:

RALEIGH, Feb. 5th, 1880.

Hon. D. H. Starbuck:

MY DEAR SIR:—I have received your very kind letter to the effect that you believe that the general, if not the unanimous, voice is that I should accept the nomination for Governor.

There is not an office in the world that I desire; but that should not make me hesitate a moment to yield to the wishes of my friends, if I could. My impaired health, however, makes it impossible.

To meet that objection you suggest that a general canvass would not be necessary.

To that I answer, that if I were a candidate, it would be quite as impossible for me not to canvass as to canvass.

With many thanks for many favors, I must reiterate to my friends that my public life is ended.

"Sparta has another son worthier than I"—choose him.

With high regards,

I am very truly yours,

E. G. READE.

The Paper Extortion.

Baltimore Gazette.

Add to the duty of 20 per cent. upon the imported article as large or a larger per cent. for freight charges, commissions and other items of expense, and the bounty allowed to our domestic paper makers is altogether too great a gratuity from the pockets of the people.

Iowa State Register.

Every issue of the weekly Register that is sent out now, represents a large actual loss to the publishers—the price of paper being advanced so much, since the last annual rates were fixed, that the subscription price does not pay the actual cost of the paper that the subscriber receives. The public can see by this how great the advantage has been. Chicago Times.

The remedy for the present audacious conspiracy of the paper-makers is, then, repeal of the paper duty and the duty on chemicals used in papermaking. The press is doing its part toward this. Let every citizen aid in the same direction; let him write to the member of Congress from his District, asking him to give his influence and vote in Congress to the good cause.

Heavy Artillery at Washington.

Manchester Union.

Can any one imagine what General Sherman wants of a regiment of heavy artillery in Washington just as the Presidential campaign is opening? Are the guns to be trained upon the capitol once more?

Irish Relief Subscription.

Mr. Doyle, one of the committeemen to solicit subscriptions for the relief of the Irish sufferers, yesterday collected $41.75, making a total of $94.25 collected up to date.

WILL BLAINE BE VICE-PRESIDENT

He Will Decline It Under Any Circumstances.

Herald and Sun Dispatches.

The report that Mr. Blaine would, under some circumstances, take the second place on the ticket with the ex-President is laughed at as ridiculous by the Senator's friends, who say that he is undoubtedly the most popular man for the first place and does not want the second place under any circumstances. It may be added that Mr. Blaine is known to be opposed to the third-term movement, not merely because he is himself a candidate for the nomination, but on the much broader ground that to renominate the ex-President would be to violate an important tradition and safeguard of the Republic and be a dangerous example and precedent for the future.

WILL RUN WITH GRANT.

The intimate personal and political friends of General Grant insist that there is not, and there will not be, any antagonism between Grant and Blaine; that Blaine will accept the second place on the ticket. I know that the men who are nearest to Grant and who manage his canvass are industriously but discreetly giving out that the ticket is to be Grant and Blaine. The course of Blaine's trusted representatives at Harrisburg can be easily comprehended if the assertions of Grant's friends are true. Blaine himself has authorized the most conspicuous one of his special representatives at Harrisburg to announce in a dispatch from Washington that there was perfect accord between his friends and the friends of General Grant.

The Town of Toisnot.

Correspondence of the News.

TOISNOT, February 12.—A spirit of progress seems to prevail here, notwithstanding Toisnot is yet in its infancy, and no one can visit this place without welcoming the progress and enterprise to be seen on every hand. The merchants are live and energetic business men, who can be found at their post at all hours. The citizens generally intelligent and naval as is shown by the deep interest they manifest in the cause of education. No town can expect to prosper that neglects its educational interest, and our people seem to fully impressed with this important truth. The male school conducted by Mr. Conyers, an able and experienced teacher is in a flourishing condition. The female school is under the management of Mr. W. S. Barnes, assisted by his talented and accomplished lady, and is also well patronized. The two schools have already between ninety-five and one hundred scholars. There are quite a number of large and commodious dwelling houses being erected in nearly all parts of the town, which will when completed add greatly to the attraction of the place. We notice a magnificent dwelling house going up on Town Creek street, which is being built by one of our merchants. We cannot say positively what motive prompts him to erect this fine residence, we only know he is a batchelor with bright prospects.

Mr. R. J. Taylor, of Wilson, has commenced to remove his steam engine with all the machinery attached to this place, where he will in a few days be prepared to furnish meal, flour and sash and blinds. Mr. Taylor is an experienced miller, and we have no doubt but he will succeed. P.

University of North Carolina.

Correspondence of the News

CHAPEL HILL, Feb. 13.—There is a statement in the letter of "H. G. A." which needs correction—that $100 per week out of the public treasury has been paid a Northern woman to "analyze grasshoppers," &c.

This statement is about one-fifth true and four-fifths untrue, as regards the money paid. The lady was employed to give Kindergarten instructions. When first employed there was no one within my knowledge, in North Carolina, who had paid attention to this mode of teaching. The instruction given has led to the establishment of fifteen or twenty Kindergarten schools in the State. For this great benefit there was only paid about $20 per week for six weeks.

I make the above correction because it is plain that "H. G. A." refers to the University Normal School. His idea of Kindergarten instruction is quite ludicrous. An immense majority of the best teachers of the country think it an excellent thing. I hope he will visit the Normal School next summer. He will receive a warm welcome and may probably change his mind. Truly,

KEMP P. BATTLE.

Not Reliable.

E. City Carolinian, (Rep.)

The New York Times has a correspondent from Raleigh, this State, who is neither a seer nor a philosopher. That he is unreliable as a prophet is evinced by the fact that so late as the day before the meeting of the Republican State Committee he telegraphed that paper that only two of its members were for Sherman, and that a solid Grant delegation to the National Convention would be appointed; and, when the result exposed his vagaries, instead of being, as Webster puts it—"rational, wise, temperate, calm and cool"—he petulently indulges in misrepresentation and abuse. That he was egregiously in error is most clearly made public, and that he was disappointed and chagrined is not a matter of surprise; but he gains nothing by wholesale misstatement of facts. He has demonstrated that, as a correspondent, he is not quite accurate nor very reliable. As our able cotemporary of the Wilmington Post observes: "His statements do not give evidence of great industry in getting at exact facts, and must be taken with several grains of salt."

Political Notes.

The Boston Herald confirms the report that General Butler will support Grant for President. It says: "We have private information that General Butler will run next autumn as the Grant-Democratic candidate for Governor.

Ex-United States Senator Ross, who, as a Republican voted against the impeachment of Andrew Johnson, has become the editor of a new Democratic paper at Leavenworth, Kansas.

The greenback-labor party has issued a call for congressional conventions, to elect delegates to the national convention at Chicago, and presidential electors to be voted for at the coming fall election.

A telegram from Washington to the New York Tribune states that Mr. Blaine will not accept the second place on the presidential ticket under any circumstances.

Ex-Judge Harrison thinks that the Connecticut delegates will favor Mr. Blaine.

The Three Republican Booms.

St. Louis Times.

Grant and a consolidated empire; John Sherman and a plundering despotism of national bank and money-lending monopolies; James Blaine and a bloody shirt, bribery government by major generals and a long record of legislative robbery—these are the booms out of which the Republican party asks the country to make its choice.

FLOWERY FLORIDA.

THE BEAUTIFUL LAND OF ORANGE GROVES.

A Trip From Raleigh to Jacksonville --Scenes and Incidents on the Way Graphicly Given.

Correspondence of the News.

PALATKA, Florida, February 10.—Leaving Charlotte last Thursday night we were soon surprised to find ourselves in the midst of a snow storm, and when day broke on us between Columbia and Augusta, snow two to three inches thick covered the soil. At Graniteville twelve miles before reaching Augusta we took breakfast. It is a thriving busy little village with its magnificent cotton factories of which there should be more of such in the South. Sherman's army burnt one of those here, but it has long since been replaced. Augusta was reached at 9 a. m. Just across the river in South Carolina is Hamburg, the scene of the famous "massacre" so-called.

Augusta is a fine, prosperous place on the Savannah river (which we crossed here) with over 30,000 inhabitants. We then headed for Savannah via the Georgia Central railroad. The scenery along this route can best be described by Mark Twain's "pine, then more pine, then pine again." At Millen half way between Augusta and Savannah we passed the snow line and saw no more of it. Nearing Savannah we began to pass live oaks, magnolias and palmettoes and soon through an opening in the "wide verdant Savannah," we saw the steeples, and then the spars and rigging of the shipping which denoted where Savannah lay. We could imagine with what joy Sherman's advancing columns must have descried from afar that same shipping when tired and worn with their long "march through Georgia." No boy reads without a thrill Xenophon's description of the first glimpse of the sea near Trebisond caught by the "ten thousand" on their ever memorable retreat and, whatever our predilections, this similar scene once enacted in sight of Savannah at the close of that long march, which will ever be of the most striking features of the great American Civil War, appeals to emotions and sensations common to humanity and as catholic as its sufferings and its joys. From Savannah, we sped southwards and onward like Mazeppa "and night without a star pursued her flight." Perhaps it was as well for we were told that we were moving through a monotonous, barren pine country. Just after leaving Savannah, we saw our first orange tree—two solitary straggiers up here, northward. The peculiarity of the orange tree is that the fruit is outside of and on top of the symmetrical deep evergreen foliage of the trees, which form a magnificent back-ground for the golden balls. There are few finer objects in nature than an orange tree in full bearing. At daylight we awoke near Live Oak, in the State of Florida. A little further on we pass Ocean Pond, near which the Confederate victory of Olustee was won by Gen. Finnagan.

At Lake Village we saw quantities of garden peas being shipped North. We were told that they had been shipping them for three weeks, also ripe strawberries. The shipments are made by rail to Chicago, Cincinnati, New York, &c. The prices obtained for the peas are $6.00 a bushel now, which, after deducting the freight of 40 cents a bushel, leaves a fairly good margin. One gentleman told us he had netted $300 this season on one acre of peas. From here to Jacksonville it is "pine and more pine," on either side, with a roadbed most miserably out of repair beneath you. Jacksonville is a fine town of some 12,000 people, built up almost entirely by the profits of the Northern travel to Florida of which it is the headquarters or distributing point. Five large hotels comparing in size and equipment with those at the best Northern summer resorts are found here. They are open from November 1st to May 1st and are always crowded. The town which contained probably less than a thousand inhabitants at the end of the war, is on the St. John's River a few miles from its mouth passes many handsome buildings and is well set off by rows of stately live oaks lining some of its older streets. We notice in a paper here "Grant and Settle" floating at its mast head. At Jacksonville we took the steamer up the St. John's for Palatka, seventy five miles distant. The river the whole way up is from two to three miles wide and narrows just above Palatka. The St. Jonns has this peculiarty that, with the exception of the Red River of the North in Minnesota, it is the only river in the United States which flows northward. Just as we swing off from the pier at Jacksonville starting up the river, looking over to the right on the bluff overlooking the river is the aristocratic suburbs of Jacksonville, and that splendid looking house you see there looming up above the surrounding grove of orange, and lemons, and magnolias was once the home of Prince Milton S. Littlefield. Here erstwhile he high revelry kept, and with his handsome turnouts, stylish trappings and servants in livery, lived a life of of sensuous enjoyment in this soft Italian climate. Now broken in fortune, bowed by misfortune, the glitter gone, he hides his diminished head and endures the rigors of poverty and the climate at Poughkeepsie on the Hudson.

A few miles further up the river the steamer stops a few moments at Mandarin, and we get a view of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's residence, bosomed in a grove of grand old live oaks. Here amid the odors of the orange groves she finds endurable the odors of the race whose imagined woes she depicted so forcibly in "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Another landing is Tocoi, whence runs a short railway to St. Augustine, the oldest town in the United States, which we shall visit on our homeward route. We pass on either hand grove after grove of orange trees, and hear fabulous tales of their profitableness. And now we reach Palatka, where we stop for the present. Orange groves surround it and lordly hotels denominate it. Its streets are all lined on either side with orange trees, looking extremely ornamental with their golden fruit. To preserve this ornamental appearance, however, the trees which line the streets are sour oranges. In the gardens sweet oranges, bananas, lemons, cactuses are all growing and the air and sky indicate beyond cavil Florida's claim as the "Italy of the West." There is much difference between the climate here and Jacksonville which is seventy-five miles farther North. Here we find they have green peas the year round and as I write I look out through the open window, through which blow the breezes of May, upon the strawberry beds filled with ripe berries and from amid the evergreen foliage of the orange and lemon and hear the mocking bird trill his roundelays of Spring. It is a lovely climate and a beautiful world. Earth, air and sky deserve the painter and poet to fix these ere they pale their beauty. Z.

VOMITING HYDATIDS.

The Contents of a Man's Stomach---A Queer Case for the Doctors.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Feb. 12.—Geo. Jeffries, of this place, has just passed through one of the strangest experiences known to medical science. A few weeks ago he was taken violently ill, and while vomiting, felt something large rise up in his throat. Thrusting his fingers in his mouth he seized the object and drew it out. It proved to be a hydatid. The animal, if it may be so called, was about five and three-quarter inches in length of a milky white color and showed considerable activity when placed in a pan of water A council of the physicians of this village was called, and they pronounced upon the case. They had reason to believe, from the sensations the sick man experienced, that there were other hydatids in his stomach, and, in order to satisfy their curiosity, they gave the patient some powerful medicines, and shortly after administered a strong emetic. Four more of the creatures were vomited up. Mr. Jeffries then felt better for several days, when he was again taken sick and subsequently three more were gotten rid of. He now thinks that his stomach is free from these unwelcome guests.

A Story About the Missing Ring.

N. Y. Tribune.

To show how this story has grown from nothing I will state what actually happened. A party of eight (of whom an own cousin of mine, who has resided abroad for some years, was one) dined at my house on November 15th. In the evening, after my cousin and some others had left the house, my wife missed a ring consisting of ten small stones, five rubies and five diamonds. Search was made for it and it was not found. The next day my cousin brought it to my house, saying that his servant had found it in the ragged lining of his coat sleeve with one of the little rubies wanting. My wife supposes that either in shaking hands or in dancing, the ring, which was of a peculiar shape, caught in this lining and was drawn off. While in the sleeve the small stone was probably knocked out by some blow or was dragged out by the material of the lining. The value of the stone to buy may have been $30; to sell, $20.

No thought of suspecting my cousin ever crossed any one's mind, and the matter was entirely forgotten until brought back to our memory by the cruel story which we heard for the first time some two weeks since.

Proposals to Sell Government Bonds.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Twenty-two proposals to sell bonds to the government were received at the sub-treasury to-day, aggregating $11,700,000, in answer to Secretary Sherman's circular offering to buy $11,000,000 worth. The prices at which the bonds were offered ranged from 103.70 to 104.50 for 6s of 1880, 105.19 to 106 for 6s of 1881, and 103.10 to 103.87½ for 5s of 1881.

Demoralization of Public Executions

Statesville Landmark.

A well-regulated person needed only to have been at Taylorsville last Friday to have become a thorough convert to the idea of private executions. We are persuaded that nothing carries with it so widespread an influence of demoralization, or has a more marked tendency toward hardening the populace than the execution of criminals before the public gaze.

The Poindexter Case.

Richmond State.

In the Senate report will be found the bill reported in reference to exempting John E. Poindexter from the provisions of the act prescribing a uniform for convicts. The amendment provides that he shall wear the uniform in case he is incarcerated. The prevalent impression is that he will not be taken to the penitentiary, but detailed for some light duty on some of the railroads of the State having contracts with the State. Up to the hour of going to press the Senate had not acted on the matter, nor had Andrew Jinkins received any information on the subject. The source from which the statement comes, however, that Poindexter would not; if possible, be carried to the penitentiary, is very authentic.

The following is the bill reported today from the Committee on Public Institutions:

Be it enacted by the General Assembly, That John E. Poindexter, convicted of homicide in the Hustings Court of the City of Richmond, and sentenced by said court to imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term of two years, is relieved from the provisions of the act prescribing certain clothing, so the said Poindexter shall have the privilege of furnishing his own clothes.

The amendment is as follows: Provided, however, if at any time the said Poindexter shall be incarcerated within the prison walls of the penitentiary, during such incarceration he shall not enjoy the benefit of this act.

Tramp Negroes Not Wanted.

Philadelphia Chronicle.

Kansas doesn't want any more tramp negroes from the South. Indiana does not want any more of them. Now if the politicians and transportation sharps will let the Southern negroes alone they may be able to go to work again and make a living where they were born and raised. The negroes have not made a great deal of ready money by the exodus, and now it is to be hoped that scheming white men will hereafter let them alone.

Beaconsfield Interrogated.

In the House of Lords, in England, Tuesday, Earl Granville asked whether it was true that the government had relieved Persia from her engagements relative to Herat. Lord Beaconsfield replied: "There is no foundation for the statement. Steps for the settlement of affairs in Afghanistan already in many instances have been taken with success. During their progress many communications were interchanged with Persia concerning the northeastern frontier, but nothing has been concluded. It would be most inconvenient and injurious to present the papers on the subject now."

SUNDAY SALAD.

FOR THE GOOD PEOPLE TO DIGEST TO-DAY.

"Our Moments Kept for Jesus"---An Interesting Article by Miss Florence R. Havergal.

When we take a wide sweep, we are so apt to be vague. When we are aiming at generalities we do not hit the practicalities. We forget that faithfulness to principle is only proved by faithfulness in detail. Has not this vagueness had something to do with the constant effectiveness of our feeble desire that our time should be devoted to God?

In things spiritual, the greater does not always include the less, but paradoxically, the less more often includes the greater. So in this case, time is entrusted to us to be traded with for our Lord. But we cannot grasp it as a whole. We instinctively break it up ere we can deal with it for any purpose. So when a New Year comes round, we commit it with special earnestness to the Lord. But as we do so, are we not conscious of a feeling that even a year is too much for us to deal with? And does not this feeling that we are dealing with a larger thing than we can grasp, take away from the sense of reality? Thus we are brought to a more manageable measure; and as the Sunday mornings or the Monday mornings come round, we thankfully commit the opening week to Him, and the sense of help and rest is renewed and strengthened. But not even the six or seven days are close enough to our hand; even to-morrow exceeds our tiny grasp, and even to-morrow's grace is therefore not given to us. So we find the need of considering our lives as a matter of day by day, and that any more general committal and consecration of our time does not meet the case so truly. Here we have found much comfort and help, and if results have not been entirely satisfactory, they have, at least, been more so than before we reached this point of subdivision.

But if we have found help and blessing by going a certain distance in one direction, is it not probable we shall find more if we go farther in the same? And so, if we may commit the days to our Lord, why not the hours, and why not the moments? And may we not expect a fresh and special blessing in so doing?

We do not realize the importance of moments. Only let us consider those two sayings of God about them, "In a moment shall they die," and, "We shall all be changed in a moment," and we shall think less lightly of them. Eternal issues may hang upon any one of them, but it has come and gone before we can think about it. Nothing seems less within the possibility of our own keeping, yet nothing is more inclusive of all other keeping. Therefore let us ask Him to keep them for us.

Are they not the tiny joints of the harness through which the darts of temptation pierce us? Only give us time, we think, and we should not be overcome: Only give us time, and we could pray and resist, and the devil would flee from us! But he comes all in a moment—an unguarded, unkept one—we utter the hasty or exaggerated word, or think the un-Christlike thought, or feel the un-Christlike impatience or resentment.

But even if we have gone so far as to say, "Take my moments," have we gone the step farther, and really let him take them—really entrusted them to him?" It is no good saying "Take," when we do not let go. How can another keep that which we are keeping hold of? So let us, with full trust in His power, first commit these slippery moments to Him—put them right into His hand—and then we may trustfully and happily say, "Lord, keep them for me! Keep every one of the quick series as it arises. I cannot keep them for Thee; do Thou keep them for Thyself!"

The fences of the United States cost $200,000,000, and the of-fences cost about as much more.

A Down-town Merchant.

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists at 25 cents a bottle.

DAILY NEWS

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r

SUNDAY FEBRUARY 15, 1880.

THE National Democratic Committee meets at Willard's Hall, Washington city, on the 23d instant, to select the time and place of holding the next National Convention.

REPRESENTATIVE REAGAN thinks the House Committee on Commerce was formed with the view of defeating the inter-State Commerce bill, but exhonerates the Speaker from any complicity in the scheme.

RUNNING Virginia politics from Washington does not meet with the unanimous approbation of the colored Republicans of that commonwealth. A large meeting of negroes was held at Richmond a few nights ago to protest against Federal interference, and the officeholding ring, to which, by the way, most of the white Virginia Republicans belong, was denounced by all the speakers in "unmeasured terms."

JOHN SHERMAN'S CHANCES.

There used to be, at a time to which the memory of man barely reaches back, in the State of Rhode Island—a State not so large as New York, and not large enough to hold Roscoe Conkling and William Sprague at the same time—a famous horse jockey named John Sherman. He performed some remarkable feats. He once rode a horse twenty miles in an hour, a remarkable performrnae for those days.

We do not suppose the meeting in New York the other day to bring forward John Sherman as a candidate for President had reference to this same John Sherman, for the good and sufficient reason that he has been dead these many years.

And yet as a Presidential candidate we do not know that he is any deader than the John Sherman of Mr. Hayes' cabinet. One is about as dead as the other.

Grant is the Republican candidate. So Cameron and Conkling have decreed, and all movements for any other candidate will avail little: at least so far as we can judge from present appearances.

COMMERCIAL SUPEMACY OF THE SOUTH.

The maritime commerce of the United States is speading its wings for flight from our North Atlantic ports.

The railroad systems of the North Western and Southern States, and the modern style of naval architecture, substiting flat bottoms of larger carrying capacities and lighter draughts of water for the sharp, deep, heavy draught vessels of former periods, are together, having the effect to transfer the ocean traffic of the South and West from Boston, New York and Philadelphia, to the Southern ports of Baltimore, Norfolk, Beaufort, Wilmington, Charleston, Port Royal, Savannah, Brunswick, Pensacola, Mobile, New Orleans and Galveston.

One has but to enumerate these latter, or glance at the map of the Gulf and South Atlantic coasts, to realize the immense commercial advantage the Southern and South-western States possess over the Northern and New England States, in respect to attracting and accommodating the merchant marine business of the world. From Galveston to the Chesapeake Bay, we have a great extent of coast, and more good ports of entry than any country in the world every port accessible of sufficient draught of water for the ships of modern construction and use, and all free from ice the year round.

They are all on shorter lines to the great Northwest than any of the Northern ports; and in climatic advantages and productions of the soils of their tributary inlands, resources of mineral wealth, facilities for manufacturing, and capacity for employing and supporting large populations, the territories contignous to and tributory to the South Atlantic and Gulf ports, are infinitely superior to the Northern and Eastern States.

Events lately transpiring in the rail road circles of Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky, and responsive movements in States Southeast and to the Northwest of these, are almost startling in their significance of the commercial supremacy of the South. The tendency of the trunk systems of railroads from Illinois, Indiana and Ohio through Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, South and North Corolina, Virginia and West Virginia is direct and inevitable to the South Atlantic and Gulf ports, and the course of commerce in that direction as natural as water down hill. No power or influence known to or under the control of man can prevent the development or rapid commercial growth of these Southern ports, and as a natural consequence the railroad property in the Southern States will become the most valuable on the continent, and the material prosperity of this highly-favored section of the country will be such as to still further astonish those who have looked with amazement at the rapid strides of American growth and development.

THE Richmond Whig, Senator-elect Mahone's organ, declares that the mission of the Readjusters in Virginia politics will not conclude with the settlement of the State debt. It claims that the new party is a Hercules which has undertaken other labors than the liquidation of the debt, and that it will never be out of a job so long as there is anything in public affairs to be readjusted. Meanwhile the followers of Mahone are reorganizing in every county in the Commonwealth.

General Sherman and Congressman Speer.

Representative Emory Speer, of Georgia, who has made a national reputation by his bill to prevent cress parades and military bands playing on Sundays, wrote a letter to General Sherman inquiring as to the army regulations in those matters. General Sherman responded to the inquiry, and expressed himself as opposed to Mr. Speer's bill. He did not, however, as has been published, threaten to withdraw the companies of troops from the Atlanta barracks in case Mr. Speer's bill passed.

An Important Personal Item.

Charles S. Prentice, of Toledo, O., went to Paris and thence to England to be treated for Bright's disease, and after the best physicians of both countries had done what they could for him gave up in despair and returned to America to die. Here he received further treatment from other skillful physicians without benefit, and while "listlessly lingering in pain and anguish," he says, heard of the Safe Kidney and Liver cure, took it, and was completely cured in a few weeks. He gives circumstantial details of his painful experience and astonishing cure, in a long letter to H. H. Warner & Co., which will be forwarded on application.

Cuticura

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm Scald Head, Dandruff, and all itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

Messrs WEEKS & POTTER: Gnolemen—I cannot refrain from ad ing my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have rendered unnecessary all further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have put me of a loathsome disease. I dispensed with all physicians two years ago, believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it were necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and limbs for five years, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have been treated by Drs —— of ——, Dr. —— of ——, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.

April 1st last, I began the use of CUTICURA, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of CUTICURA entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were affected in a more aggravated form, but are now completely healed. I believe myself completely cured. I shall continue the CUTICURA RESOLVENT as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It will afford me pleasure, as I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.

Yours, etc.,
STEPHEN CROWELL.
NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 30, 1878.

A RUNNING SORE

CURED IN ONE WEEK.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER:—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bad case of Salt Rheum. The back of one of my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has remained so up to to-day. E. P. DAGGETT.
MILFORD, ME., June 10, 1878.
NOTE.—Reader, don't you think these cures remarkable?

CUTICURA SOAP,

MEDICINAL AND TOILET,

Is prepared from CUTICURA in a modified form, and is positively indispensable in the treatment of Skin and Scalp Diseases. We recommend it for the preservation of the skins of infants, for gentlemen who shave and are troubled with tender faces, for those who desire a clean and wholesome Skin and Scalp, and for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Its delightful and refreshing fragrance equals or surpasses the finest Parisian Soaps.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by WEEKS & POTTER, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington street, Boston, and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large box 8, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 3? cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

A Rare Chance for Investment.

Wishing to give my whole attention to the lumber trade, in which I am about to engage on a larger scale than ever before, I offer for sale on terms to suit the times the following valuable property in Cary:

I.

MY PLUG TOBACCO FACTORY, in a BRICK building 50x80 feet, 3 stories high, the lower story being two large storerooms. The Tobacco Machinery is new and has a capacity of manufacturing 1,000 lbs. per day. The factory has been worked a year, and a good beginning for a trade has been made. The building and the machinery will be sold together, or separately to suit purchasers.

II.

GRAIN MILLS,

in a 3 story brick building, 28x40 feet. Two Wheat Mills and one Corn Mill, new and complete with a capacity for grinding 100 bushels of wheat and 100 bushels of corn a day, and can compete in quality of flour with any mills in the State. The mills have had a very large local patronage during the past year. They are driven by a 60 HORSE POWER STEAM ENGINE, improved, of the make of Talbott & Sons, Richmond.

Attached to the engine is also a 60 Saw COTTON GIN and power press, at a safe distance (about 100 feet) in a different lot. The engine has a brick smoke-stack 60 feet high, making the danger from fire the least possible and the rate of insurance very low.

III.

Several well built and handsome residences, with lots and gardens of about 1 acre to each dwelling. They are wooden buildings, 2 stories high, with from 5 to 7 rooms each, situated in desirable locations in the village.

Besides these, 4 one acre lots, with cottage buildings of 2 rooms.

TERMS: One-third Cash; balance on reasonable time.

——The hand organ and bagpipe fiends enlivened the juvenile portion of our population yesterday. The boys were all out; it being Saturday and they haunted the nuisances wherever they went.

——Gas was turned on strong in the market house last night. Not through the gas burners, however, but through the mouths of a number of beligerent negroes. But none of them fought in spite of the gas.

——The marble floor in the corridor of the government building was scrubbed up yesterday and now looks clean and bright, but it will not remain so long. Spit in the spittoons! There are plenty of them.

——The Meherring bridge on the Petersburg & Weldon Railroad, which was burned last Monday night, is being rapidly rebuilt, and trains will run through with mail and passengers to Weldon by Tuesday next.

——Be sure and read the new advertisement, "A rare chance." This is a very desirable piece of property and those wishing to purchase real estate have a fine opportunity now presented. For particulars, address P. O. Box 356, or call at the NEWS office.

——"Miss Betty Hargrove, care Mr. J. Bullock, Townsville, N. C., In haste." Is the way a letter is addressed at the postoffice, but as Miss Betsy's correspondent failed to put a stamp on the letter, the postoffice department will not be in great "haste" to forward it.

——We notice that Messrs. Yarborough, Davis & Co., dealers in groceries and farmers' supplies, have been receiving large additions to their already well filled store. We especially noticed the arrival of 25,000 pounds of bulk sides received by them yesterday.

——The Oak City Blues, a colored military company of this city, held a meeting Friday night, when the following officers were elected: Captain, Calvin Dunston; First Lieutenant, L. T. Thompson; Second Lieutenant, A. Grant; Third Lieutenant, Jos. Smith; Secretary, Wiley Hunter; Treasurer, Sergeant Adkins.

——The city authorities having tried almost every kind of substitute for gas for lighting the street lamps, and the city being still in the dark, we would now respectfully suggest that they enter into a contract with Mr. Edison for some of his electric light, and that they secure the first to be sold. Give us light somehow. It makes little difference how we get it or how it is furnished. What we want is light.

——A dispatch to the associated press, received at this office last night from Morganton, states that Judge Avery yesterday granted an injunction against Wallace W. Rollins, President of the Western Division of the Western N. C. Railroad, from transfering or disposing of any of the effects of said road. The same telegram states that Governor Jarvis will probably call the Legislature together. As the Governor declined to be interviewed upon anything relating to this road a day or two ago, we cannot inform our readers definitely whether the Legislature is to be convened or not. We are rather inclined to think (as we stated several days ago) that it will.

What Physicians at Home and Abroad Think of the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."
W. F BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anamia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.
GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.
G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.
E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

What a Pity

that the otherwise beautiful girl should have had such bad teeth. And all because she did not use SOZODONT. It costs so little to buy it considering the good it does, and its benefits stretch out into her future life. Poor girl!

The reason why adulterated baking powders make bread and biscuits very indigestible, is because they harden the gluten of the wheat and render it less soluble. The purity and perfect combination of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder makes all articles easy of digestion.

THE NEW FRYER.

This useful invention meets a long-felt need for a more convenient method of removing Oysters, Potatoes, and other fried food, with greater quickness, and all at once, from the boiling fat in which they have been cooked, and allowing the fat to drain from them while they remain over the fire; thereby getting rid more certainly of the superfluous grease, the objection so often made of the unhealthiness of food cooked in the ordinary frying-pan is done away with.

By detaching the supporter, you have for omelettes and other things for which a drainer is not required, a deeper and better quality of frying-pan than has heretofore been made.

THE OVAL CAKE
